- This conference is run and promoted by the MEC committee and conference team in association with COCM. Please be willing to follow their directions during the conference, and to help make the conference a meaningful time for all who attend.
 - There will be no children's or teens programme. There can be a creche, but only if parents arrange this.
 - Applicants are responsible for travel arrangements to and from the college.
 - Allocation of rooms is at the discretion of the organising team, so please accept that you may not be sharing a room with your friends, nor in an en-suite room.
 - There is limited disabled access, as the college is an old building. We will try to help in any way
